YOU ARE / where YOU EAT.

At The Lakely, it's truly important to us that we use the freshest, local ingredients. It supports local farmers and producers, helps the local economy, reduces environmental harm - and most importantly here at the table - it makes for the best tasting and most nutritious meals. But there's an often-unspoken benefit to utilizing local foods: they connect us to the land upon which we live and travel.

When we eat local foods, and especially when we eat foods native to the Upper Midwest, we help create an identity more closely tied to this region. By eating the foods of these northwoods, a greater part of us becomes the northwoods.

Our goal at The Lakely is to foster the development of a style of cuisine that represents the Upper Midwest for all its biological, environmental, and cultural diversity. We want to make food that is inherently here, and we're thrilled you're joining us on that journey. Thank you for sharing in this local experience, enjoy!
